She's bare bones: no depth sounder, no radar, no window wipers, no anchor winch

Disclosures:

Main thing is she needs center line work, possibly a significant amount.

General:

Last trip/engine run in Aug 2025. Detailed engine log from last 4 years. Routinely serviced in water by diver (zincs/running gear & intake cleaning). Last Haul out July 2025 in Port Townsend (some seem racorking, bottom painted, keel work). Currently in Liberty Bay Marina (slip transferable).

Reason for selling:

We love her and are looking for a new owner to take her because she's become too much boat for us. We lived aboard her until our first child was born and as a young growing family we're unable to give her the attention and resources she needs.

She's treated us well and we are willing to hold out for the right owner. The right owner is someone who is an experienced wooden boat owner and committed to her continuing restoration, ideally someone with resources and time.

She's been valued at 40k in the past but due to her need for repairs we're looking at the right owner to
